All of Your Files and Ideas Simply Together

In one year, searching for documents costs companies $3,900 per employee in productivity losses. With the Google Drive and Evernote integration, you’ll be able to fully document projects from ideation to creation and always find them all in a flash.

Keep things in context. Easily drop any file from Google Drive into Evernote notes to add context to your documents, related projects, meetings and actions items.

Practice frictionless handoffs. Access Google Drive files from within the Evernote app. No more switching back and forth and losing your momentum when you’re deep in the zone.

Don’t worry about the save button. Any changes made in your Google Drive will auto-sync and dynamically update to Evernote.
